Bookings & Access

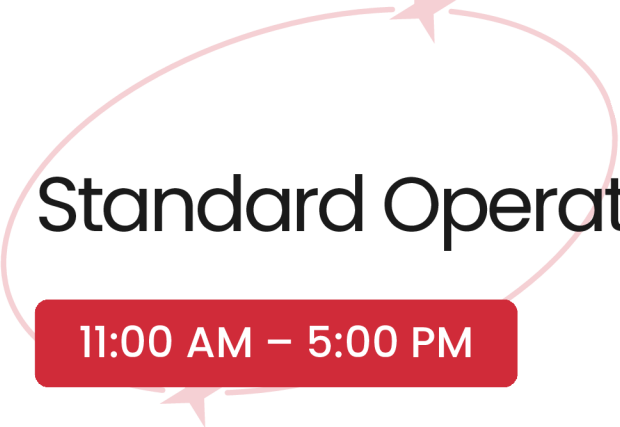

All bookings must be made through the official 707 CREATORS HOUSE booking platform or approved booking channels.

Bookings are not accepted via direct messages, phone calls, WhatsApp, or walk-in requests unless expressly approved by management.

To maintain structure and proper scheduling:

- A minimum of 48 hours pre-booking is required.
- Full payment is required before any booking is confirmed.
- Bookings are only secured upon payment confirmation.
- Walk-ins and same-day bookings are not guaranteed.
- All bookings remain subject to availability and confirmation.

707 CREATORS HOUSE offers both hourly and subscription-based access.

Standard Operating Hours

11:00 AM – 5:00 PM

This applies to both indoor and outdoor spaces unless otherwise approved by management.

Setup, usage, and pack-down must happen within the approved booking period.

Overtime Policy

Bookings are charged according to the duration selected during checkout.

If additional time is required beyond the approved booking period, overtime charges may apply.

Overtime Rates

Ònàlà: ₦30,000 per additional hour

Sol Space: ₦25,000 per additional hour

MUA Workstations

MUA Workstation bookings are charged on a daily access basis.

Standard access runs within CREATORS HOUSE operating hours and creators are expected to conclude all sessions, pack up, and vacate their workstation before closing time.

Where an additional hour is approved by management, an overtime fee of ₦5,000 will apply.

Please note that workstation overtime is limited to a maximum of one additional hour and remains subject to operational availability.

Overtime remains subject to:

- Space availability
- Operational scheduling
- Management approval

Where another booking is scheduled immediately after, overtime may not be available.

All overtime fees must be settled before departure.

Subscription & Membership Structure

707 CREATORS HOUSE offers both one-off bookings and subscription-based access for creators and businesses requiring more consistent use of the space.

Membership access include:

- Priority booking access
- Early access to activations
- Creators opportunities
- Visibility within the 707 ecosystem
- Access to community-led initiatives and events

Subscription Validity

Standard subscriptions are valid for 30 days from activation.

Where necessary, unused bookings may be extended up to 45–60 days, depending on operational availability and management discretion.

Extensions are reviewed on a case-by-case basis and are not automatically guaranteed.

Non-Transferability

All memberships and bookings are strictly non-transferable.

Bookings may only be used by the approved creator, business, or brand associated with the reservation.

Community Standards & Curation

3

707 CREATORS HOUSE is a curated environment built around professionalism, creativity, collaboration, and quality presentation.

Access to the platform is selective and subject to alignment with the overall standards and vision of the brand.

All users are expected to:

- Maintain professionalism
- Treat clients respectfully
- Keep the space clean
- Operate responsibly within the environment
- Respect other creators and businesses using the space

707 reserves the right to:

- Approve or decline bookings
- Restrict access where necessary
- Remove individuals or brands whose conduct negatively affects the experience, environment, or community

This platform is designed not just for access, but for creators who are intentional about growth and presentation.

This equipment is intended for creators requiring professional-grade lighting setups and commercial production capabilities.

Users remain responsible for any damage caused to premium equipment during their booking period.

Access, Availability & Brand Priority

6

While the CREATORS HOUSE operates as a community-driven platform, certain dates may be reserved for:

- 707-owned events
- Internal campaigns
- Brand activations
- International pop-ups
- Special experiences
- Private programming

As such:

- Certain dates may not be available for external bookings or subscription usage.
- Management reserves the right to prioritize internal brand programming where necessary.

This ensures that the broader vision and positioning of the platform remain protected and properly managed.

Vendor Participation & Pop-Ups

7

Participation in 707 CREATORS HOUSE activations, pop-ups, and community events is curated and not automatically guaranteed.

707 reserves the right to:

- Select participating vendors
- Limit categories where necessary
- Curate brands based on alignment, quality, professionalism, and overall experience

The goal is to maintain a balanced, elevated, and intentional environment across all experiences hosted within the platform.

Food, Refreshments & Catering

8

For events, activations, workshops, and pop-ups hosted within the CREATORS HOUSE ecosystem:

- Catering and refreshments may be handled directly by 707 or approved catering partners.
- External food vendors may not be permitted unless previously approved by management.

This helps maintain consistency in guest experience and event presentation.

Content & Media Usage

9

707 CREATORS HOUSE reserves the right to:

- Capture behind-the-scenes content
- Document events and creator sessions
- Repost approved content across official platforms
- Use visuals from activations for promotional and marketing purposes

Where applicable, proper credit will be given to creators and participating brands.

Cancellations & Rescheduling

★ 10

Cancellations made less than 48 hours before a booking may not qualify for refunds.

Rescheduling requests remain subject to:

- Availability
- Operational scheduling
- Management approval

No-shows may result in:

- Loss of booking access
- Cancellation without refund
- Future booking restrictions

Prohibited Activities

11

The following are not permitted within the CREATORS HOUSE environment:

- Counterfeit product sales
- Unsafe beauty practices
- Illegal activities
- Excessive disruption or disorderly conduct
- Misuse of facilities or equipment
- Unauthorized overcrowding
- Activities that compromise the experience of other users

707 reserves the right to discontinue any booking or activity that compromises the safety, experience, or standards of the platform.

Liability

707 CREATORS HOUSE is not responsible for:

- Lost or stolen items
- Damaged personal belongings
- Disputes between vendors, creators, or customers
- Injuries resulting from negligence or misuse of the facility

Users operate within the space at their own discretion and responsibility.

Amendments & Operational Changes

13

As the CREATORS HOUSE platform evolves, these guidelines and operational structures may be updated periodically

707 reserves the right to revise

- Pricing
- Booking systems
- Membership structures
- Operational policies
- Access rules
- Equipment availability

Where necessary, users and members will be informed of significant changes.
